Yaounde, March 7th, 2025

PRESS RELEASE

National and international communities, national and international financial and technical partners, social actors, national and international press, diplomatic missions, international and national institutions, tourism and leisure professionals, industrialists, members of consular chambers and associations, members of GECAM, the Cameroon medical council, engineers, architects, banking and financial institutions, are informed that as part of the WDI program deployment activities, its flagship project, Ndolle City, and integrated projects, following the Distinguished Instruction of the President of the Republic, His Excellency Mr Paul BIYA, the Prime Minister Head of Government authorized the official launch of activities at the Yaounde Conference Center last December, presided over by the Minister of State, Minister of Tourism and Leisure Mr. Bello Bouba Maigari, acting in his capacity as personal representative of the Prime Minister, Head of Government.

The issuing authority, the Bank Of Central African States (BEAC), requested additional financial instructions on January 6th, 2025, which led to a consultation meeting on February 26th, 2025 organized by the Minister of Finance, and was discussed at the third session of the Interministerial strategic monitoring, facilitation and support committee of the World Dream Investment Program, its flagship project Ndolle City and integrated projects. At the end of these consultations, the following points of convergence requested by the Bank of Central African States were approved by the Committee.

- Validation of the disbursement plan, estimated at a monthly ceiling of 500 billion FCFA per drawdown, the largest ever made for our economy by a private company.
- The Ndolle City Project and integrated projects will be governed by April 18th, 2013 law, establishing incentives for private investment in the Republic of Cameroon
- The signing of a tripartite agreement between the Government, the WDI program promoter and investors under the leadership of the Government.

The General Manager,

Vice-Chairman of the interministerial strategic monitoring, facilitation and support committee of the World Dream Investment program, its flagship project, Ndolle City and integrated projects.
